W. W. Holden, Printer to the State.

A BILL TO REGULATE THE HANDS TO WORK
ON PUBLIC ROADS.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the 2 State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the
3 authority of the same, That all white males between the
4 ages of sixteen and fifty, and free males of color and male
5 slaves between the ages of fourteen and fifty-five years,
6 shall be liable on the call of the public overseers, to work
7 in repairing and making public roads; and that no person
8 shall be exempted therefrom by reason of his being a jus-
9 tice of the peace, constable, warden of the poor, patroller,
10 or lock-keeper on the Dismal Swamp Canal. And that all
11 clauses of the Revised Code, entitled, "Roads, Fences
12 and Bridges," inconsistent with this act be hereby repeal-
13 ed; and this act shall be in force from the time of its rati-
14 fication.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
 COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY
 REPORT
 JUDICIAL SYSTEM

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM

The Committee on the Judicial System, created by the House of Representatives in 1934, has the honor to submit to the House its report on the work of the Committee during the past year. The Committee has held numerous public hearings and has received many suggestions from the public. It has also conducted extensive research into the various problems of the judicial system. The Committee believes that the present system is in need of fundamental reform. It believes that the present system is too slow, too expensive, and too complicated. It believes that the present system is in need of a complete reorganization. The Committee proposes a number of reforms which it believes will make the judicial system more efficient, more economical, and more accessible to the public. These reforms include the creation of a new judicial system, the reorganization of the present system, and the improvement of the methods of selecting judges. The Committee believes that these reforms are essential for the proper functioning of the judicial system. It believes that they are essential for the protection of the rights of the people. It believes that they are essential for the maintenance of the rule of law. The Committee urges the House to take prompt action on these reforms.
